Freelance
Web Designer+ Developer
September 2021 - Present (4 years 5 months)

Since 2021, I have been deeply immersed in the world of web development and design, building a career that combines creativity, technical expertise, and a passion for solving problems through digital solutions. What started as curiosity quickly evolved into a professional journey where I've had the privilege of working with diverse clients, delivering projects that range from sleek personal websites to complex business platforms. Today, I continue to expand my skills, take on new challenges, and remain open to collaborations that push the boundaries of design and technology.
